BLUE JAYS NOTES

- The Dunedin Blue Jays six game win streak came to a halt as they fell to the Bradenton Marauders 6-3 in game two of a six-game set Wednesday night at TD Ballpark.
- RHP Chris McElvain (4 IP, 3 R, 3 H, 1 BB, 6 K) did not factor into a decision in his first start with Dunedin on minor league rehab assignment.
 - McElvain sat down the first seven batters he faced in order, and did not allow a hit through his first three frames of work.
- RHP Colby Martin (1 IP, 0 R, 0 H, 0 BB, 2 K) fanned a pair of Marauders in a perfect 9th inning of work.
 - Martin has thrown 11 consecutive shutout appearances to begin the season spanning 11.1 innings with 15 strikeouts and only one hit allowed.
 - The last time Martin allowed a hit was April 13 @JUP, 31 days and eight outings ago.
- C Edward Duran (3-for-4, RBI, 2 R, 2B) either scored or brought home all three Dunedin's runs and extended his hit streak to 10 games.
 - Duran tripled and scored on a wild pitch in the 2nd, then doubled home a run in the 4th before coming across on a wild pitch.
 - Duran has an RBI hit in both games to open the series and his 22 RBI this season are tops on the team.
 - His three hits marked a season high.
 - He has hit safely in 15 of his last 16 games.
 - Over his last 16 games, Duran is batting .349/.414/.508 with 14 RBI.
 - Duran also threw out three attempted base stealers from behind home plate, including two sub-1.90 second pop time throws to second base.
